4. Parking Permit Information

- A. All vehicles parked on the LC State campus must obtain and display a valid parking permit.
- B. Parking permit fees shall be determined each year by the Vice President for Finance and Administration and are subject to the president's approval. Current parking regulations can be found at <https://www.lcsc.edu/public-safety/parking-services> and are updated annually.
- C. Special one-day visitor permits are available in the Public Safety Office or the Administrative Services Office.
- D. Parking permits are not transferable from one vehicle to another or from one owner to another. Failure to obey this rule will constitute a violation and make the operator subject to a citation.
- E. For more detailed parking regulations, including fines and penalties, contact the Department of Public Safety or visit their website at: <https://www.lcsc.edu/public-safety/parking-services>.
- F. Parking privileges may be recalled, revoked or suspended by the Vice President for Finance based on recommendations made by the Director of Public Safety for any of the following reasons:
 - i. Three or more citations within a school year;
 - ii. Using a permit on a vehicle that it is not registered to; and/or
 - iii. Falsification of permit application.
- G. All penalties are due and payable to the Public Safety or Controller's Office within ten working days of issuance of the citation. Failure to comply may constitute an additional violation with a minimum penalty of $25.00 in addition to the original penalty.
- H. The Ticket Appeal Committee is comprised of professional and classified staff, faculty and students. They meet once a week or as needed to review and decide parking ticket appeals. Information on appealing a ticket can be found in the parking regulations. A vice president or the president may grant an appeal of a parking citation.
- I. Temporary handicap permits are available dependent on need. Parking in handicap zones requires a handicap permit and a valid LC State parking permit.

5. Visitors

- A. Visitors are welcome on the LC State campus. Visitor parking spots can be found in various lots and metered spots are available by the Administration Building, Williams Conference Center and Sam Glenn Complex.
- B. Visitors to LC State are expected to respect all signs concerning parking permits and parking areas. Visitors may be given some leniency for the first parking offense, depending upon the circumstances.
- C. Day passes for special event parking are available for a nominal fee and are available at the cashier's window in the Administration Building or the information desk in the Student Union Building. Advanced arrangements can be made by contacting the Public Safety Office. More information on special event parking is available at <https://www.lcsc.edu/event-services/prepare-for-your-event/event-parking>.
- D. Faculty, staff, and students are not eligible for a visitor's permit.
