

1. Purpose

LC State recognizes that commencement activities are a formal academic event. This policy outlines the proper attire and approved academic regalia for graduates of LC State in order to participate in commencement activities.

2. Academic Regalia

- A. Commonly called cap and gown, academic regalia includes a mortarboard (cap), black gown, and tassel. The stole is included for baccalaureate and graduate certificate candidates, and a hood for master's degree candidates.
- Associate degree or certificate candidates wear a solid black robe, black mortarboard (cap), and tassel.
 - Bachelor's degree candidates wear a solid black robe with a white institutional stole, black mortarboard (cap), and tassel.
 - Graduate certificate candidates wear a solid black robe with blue institutional stole, black mortarboard (cap), and tassel.
 - Graduate degree candidates wear a solid black master's robe with master's hood appropriately colored for the degree and discipline, a black mortarboard (cap), and tassel.

B. Proper Placement of Tassel and Honor Cords

- The tassel is worn on the right side of the mortarboard prior to the degree being conferred.
- Honor cords are worn around the neck and hanging down the front of the gown to identify students who are graduating with honors.
- The cords are provided by LC State and are worn on this one occasion only. Only the cords and stoles listed below are appropriate for commencement at LC State.

Approved Honors Cords/Stoles/Tassels:

- President's honors (blue/white; Professional-Technical honors, 3.75 GPA)
- Cum Laude (silver; with distinction, 3.70 GPA)
- Magna Cum Laude (gold; with great distinction, 3.8 GPA)
- Summa Cum Laude (silver & gold; with highest distinction, 3.9 GPA)

3. College-sanctioned Honor Societies and Organizations

- A. Teacher Education: Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society recognizes teacher candidates who have earned a grade point average of 3.5 or higher, demonstrated high academic ideals, and have made significant contributions to the education profession (green and purple cords).
- B. Social Work: Phi Alpha Honor Society recognizes pledged members with a grade point average of 3.25 or higher (silver medallion)
- C. Psychology: Psi Chi Honor Society recognizes declared psychology majors who have earned a GPA that is in the top 35% of their class or a 3.3 GPA, with an average 3.0 GPA for psychology courses (silver medallion).
- D. History: Phi Alpha Theta Honor Society recognizes students who have completed 12 credit hours or more of history with a minimum 3.1 GPA in history and minimum 3.0 GPA overall (red and light blue cords).
- E. Justice Studies: Alpha Phi Sigma Honor Society recognizes students who have declared a major, minor or equivalent in the criminal justice or related field, have completed 45 semester hours, have a minimum GPA of 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, with a minimum GPA of 3.2 in courses in criminal justice related fields and rank in the top 35% of their class. (blue and gold medallion).

- F. Ambassador Honor Society: recognizes the academic achievements of members with a GPA of 3.0 or higher and their service contributions (gold tassel).

4. Military and Veteran Regalia

LC State honors those who serve or have honorably served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

- A. Military and veteran graduates wear red, white, and blue honor cords.
- B. Military men and women who are currently serving may wear a military service dress uniform.

5. Allowable Additions to Approved Academic Regalia

- A. Cords, stoles, hoods, or medallions beyond those listed in this policy are not to be worn by LC State graduates during commencement exercises.
- B. Small pins which demonstrate affiliation with other instructional programs or campus groups and organizations may be worn on the stole or the gown.